THE PRESIDENT

0201 Purpose

The President is de-facto the Chief Executive Officer of the Union. The Office of President is the highest award that can be made to a person for his or her exemplary service to the Union.

0202 Accountability

The President is accountable to the Member Clubs.

0203 Authorised to

- 3.1 Attend Meetings of the Management Board
- 3.2 Attend, as an ex-officio member, any meeting of any other Committee, Sub Committee, Working or Task Group.

0204 Tasks

- 1 To represent the Union as required.
- 2 To chair General Meetings, along with the Club Representatives.
- 3 To attend Meetings of the Management Board
- 4 To ensure regular access by the Member Clubs to the Board by means of a programme of visits by members of the Board to the Member Clubs.

0205 In the absence of the President at an event at which he/she would have been expected to speak or make a presentation, the Deputy President, if available, will deputise. In the unforeseen absence of either of these, the senior member of the Board will nominate a suitable alternate from those present; normally this will be the longest serving Past President.
